

STANLEY SWEEPS STATE FROM END TO END

Looks Like His Majority Will Be Over 40,000—Contests for Minor Offices Are Close.

A. O. Stanley defeated H. V. McChesney and E. J. McDermott for the Democratic nomination for governor in the primary Saturday by a big majority. Stanley's plurality over McChesney may go as high as 50,000 votes. It will take the official count to determine the exact score. McDermott carried Louisville by about 4,000 over Stanley, who carried it a like figure over McChesney.

A number of the other state races are very close and it will take the official vote to determine the winner. It looks like James D. Black, of Harrodsburg, has defeated James P. Edwards for Lieutenant Governor. Barksdale Hammett seems to have won the race for Secretary of State. The race between Thomas S. Rhea and Robert L. Green for Auditor is very close and only take the official count. The same situation prevails in the race between Claude B. Terrell and Sherman Goodpastor for State Treasurer. Rodman W. Keenon, of Harrodsburg, made a great race and seems sure of nomination as Clerk of the Court of Appeals over Alvin Steger. The race for State Superintendent of Schools is close between R. S. Eubank and V. O. Gilbert. Matt S. Coker romped away from H. M. Freeman in the race for Commissioner of Agriculture.

Sid Douthitt, of Henry county, defeated that old campaigner Billy Klair for Railroad Commissioner with John E. Newman third.

A number of very hard fought races are reported from all over the state and some may take the official count to determine the winner. Judge Robert L. Stout was given a deserved renomination for Circuit Judge over Emmett Dickson, of Paris, in the Franklin-Bourbon-Woodford-Scott district by about 600 majority.

Judge John S. Rhea was renominated over John Standard in the Logan county district.

Franklin county went about 83 majority for Stanley yet elected L. B. Hamilton a state-wide to the Legislature.

McChesney carried only three counties in the Eighth: Lincoln by 122, Casey by 112 and Spencer by about 25.

Judge Gus Thomas, of Mayfield, defeated Judge C. S. Hunt for renomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the first appellate district.

Judge Will A. Young, a brother of Allie Young, defeated Bridges White for Circuit Judge in the Rowan-Montgomery district by 1,300 majority.

Samuel J. Pugh, of Lewis county, father-in-law of Dr. D. M. Walker, of the Christian church, was defeated for the republican nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the sixth appellate district by W. S. Wilford, of Carter.

Little interest was taken in the republican primary but a very small per cent of the party's vote being cast. Ed Morrow overwhelmingly defeated L. McLaughlin for the nomination for governor and Judge Lewis L. Walker, of Lancaster, was nominated for lieutenant governor. It is expected that a platform convention will soon be called by the democratic authorities, which will ignore state-wide prohibition. The sentiment seems to be to give Stanley his own way in this and other matters which may affect the November election.

Boyle county gave Stanley 309 majority. Garrard about 350, Mercer about 60, Shelby about 125, Jessamine 200, Adair about 150, Madison 600, Anderson 400.

George L. Pickett, of Shelbyville, a brother of Mrs. Will Severance, of this city, was nominated for Representative in Shelby county after a hard race. It is understood that he will be the candidate of the Stanley administration for Speaker of the House.

Reports from Somerset are that in the hottest primary ever held in the republican party in that district, Judge B. J. Bethurum, of Pulaski, defeated Judge H. C. Kennedy, of Wayne for the circuit judgeship nomination by 150 majority. Walter N. Flippin is reported to have defeated M. L. Jarvis for commonwealth's attorney.

The Louisville Herald, the state organ of the Progressive party, says that the Bull Moose state ticket will declare for state-wide prohibition at a platform convention in Louisville on August 30. All of the candidates for state offices have declared for it.

George Fitch, the humorist died following an operation for appendicitis at Berkeley, Cal.

Judge Hardin Carries Every County.

Judge Charles A. Hardin, of Harrodsburg, was renominated for Circuit Judge in this, the Thirteenth Judicial district over Charles C. Fox, of Danville, by a majority of 2,187. Judge Hardin carried every county in the district, even his opponent's home county, Boyle, by 298. His other majorities were Lincoln 585, Garrard 599 and Mercer 709.

The race for Commonwealth's Attorney in this district attracted a great deal of attention. The incumbent, Hon. Emmet Puryear, of Danville, defeated Judge John Sam Owsley, of Stanford by about 700 majority. Puryear carried every county in the district except Lincoln which gave Mr. Owsley about 900 majority. Puryear's majorities in the other counties were: Boyle 726, Mercer about 500; Garrard about 500.

In this county, Circuit Clerk Marshall C. Newland was renominated over Jesse D. Wearen by 214 majority after a hard and interesting fight.

Platform Convention to be Quiet One

The Democratic State platform convention, which probably will be called this month, promises to be a quiet party affair, with no factional friction, especially over the liquor question, says a Frankfort dispatch. It was ascertained authoritatively, though no one would assume the responsibility to speak for anyone other than himself, that the McChesney organization will make no fight for a plank favoring submission of a State-wide amendment, and so far as could be learned there is no other question dividing the party. The convention, it is expected, will be devoted to consideration of how the party and the ticket can put the best face forward in the November election campaign. It seems to be tacitly agreed among politicians of both sides that the primary settled the liquor question so far as the Democratic party is concerned this year, and Mr. Stanley will be untrammelled in the matter of committing the party on such subjects as he considers of paramount importance in the campaign.

A Good Record.

Five years ago, Wallace H. Hall, nephew of Jno. A. Blain, of Hustonville, became an employee of the post office at Freeport, Ill. On his annual examinations, his grades were around 100 per cent and each year, he received a promotion in salary. This year he expected no promotion, but when the Department found that there would be funds for increasing the salaries of some of the employees the postmaster indorsed the names of the two employees who had been longest in the service, but whose grades were not so good. The Department instructed that the promotion be given Mr. Hall. Mr. Hall has no "pull" but what he has received has been strictly on his own merits.

Mr. Owsley Thankful.

I desire to thank my friends who stood by me in my race for Commonwealth's Attorney and assure them I shall never forget their goodness to me and their work in my behalf. I am especially grateful to the democrats of my home county, who gave me such a splendid majority. Of course I shall support the ticket nominated and I hope every democrat who supported me, as well as every other one in the State of Kentucky, will do. Thanking you all and assuring you that I shall remember to the end what you have done for me, I am, yours very truly, J. S. Owsley.

Why Cows Give More Milk.

Cattle used to be bred chiefly for work. Therefore the cows did not give much milk. Breeds improve the thing for when they are selected. In 1790 the work cows of Germany gave an average of a pint and a half a day. Interest in milk increased, and by 1800 the average yield was a quart and a half. Breeding went on quickly, and in 1810 the German cows averaged two quarts of milk each per day. In 1820 there in 1830 four—and there the gain stood for thirty years. But in 1861 the production had increased to six quarts, and by 1870 to eight.

Back From Their Outing.

Morgan Smith Baughman, William P. Tate, James P. Bailey, Jr., and John Reid McKinney, returned Saturday night from Valley View, where they spent some ten days with 50 or 60 other boy scouts. They went under the chaperonage of Harry Reinhardt and had a big time.

Handsome New Sign.

Carter & Carter, the Main street livermen, have just put into position a handsome new sign. A journeyman painter did it.

Kentucky's Next Governor.

HON. A. O. STANLEY.

Killing in Pulaski.

At Bourbon precinct, Pulaski county, on Friday night, J. H. Taylor, a Somerset attorney, shot and killed Frank Summers, a farmer. It is stated that Summers, who was for Kennedy for circuit judge, yelled for his man at a speaking which had been advertised by the Bethurum advocate. Taylor, a Bethurum follower, called him down and a quarrel ensued, in which the attorney used his gun with a fatal effect, Taylor gave himself up. He was taken to Danville till his trial.

Sells Another Maxwell.

Local Agent H. C. Carpenter reports the sale of a new model five-passenger Maxwell automobile to W. D. Hanson, near Moreland. Mr. Carpenter has sold about a dozen cars in as many months in this section. District Salesman Withers was here Monday with a 1916 model, which created much interest among motorists, with its new features. Mr. Carpenter hopes to have his new demonstrator here in time for the fair next week.

Will Speak On Equal Rights.

Mr. W. P. Marsh, of Lawrenceburg, who is representing the Kentucky Equal Rights Association will speak in the circuit court room, Thursday night at eight o'clock on the subject of "Equal Suffrage." Mr. Marsh is the attorney, who represented the ladies in the case of Crook vs. Bartlett in which the women gained the right to vote for County Superintendent of Schools. All are invited to attend.

Bible School Convention.

Every Christian Bible School is urgently requested to send representatives to the convention held at Gosport Tuesday, Aug. 17. The program appears elsewhere in the Interior Journal. The Goshen people are making great preparations to entertain the county schools and will be greatly disappointed unless every school is represented.—D. M. Walker, president.

J. W. Acey Sells Out.

J. W. Acey has sold out his soft drink establishment, pool room and restaurant on Depot street, to R. C. Engleman, who has taken charge. Mr. Acey is undecided as to his business future.

NEWS OF CHURCHES

Prayer meeting at the Methodist church beginning promptly at 7:15 Thursday evening.
Rev. M. S. Clark, of Wilmore arrived Monday and is preaching at 10 A. M., and 7:30 P. M., at Logan's Creek.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

The Teutonic allies continue successfully their operations against the Russians in Northwest Russia and in Poland, and an engagement to drive the remaining Russians from East Galicia has begun. Field Marshal von Hindenburg's troops to the north and northeast of Warsaw are steadily pressing east and southeast; a ring of besiegers has been forged around the fortress of Novogorodsk, the last stronghold on the Vistula line remaining in Russian hands; Praga, the eastern suburb of Warsaw, upon which the Russians fell back when they evacuated the Polish capital has been captured. A German fleet of nine battleships and twelve cruisers attacked the entrance to the Gulf of Riga, but all were repulsed.

The Turkish battleship Kheyr-ed-Din Barbarossa, of 9,300 tons displacement, formerly the German warship Kurfurst Friedrich Wilhelm, has been sunk by a submarine of the Entente Powers, according to an official announcement issued by the Turkish Government.

The British have recaptured from the Germans Belgian trophies taken from them recently through the use of flame projectors and have captured 1,300 yards of additional terrain here. French airmen have been observed Saarlueken in Rhenish Prussia to the northeast of Metz.

The Italians and Austrians are still in heavy combat on the mountains, in the valleys and on the plains in the Austro-Italian battle ground.

Gloom Chaser Coming.

Old Man Gloom is going to bid Stanford good-bye soon. He is going to stay away for a week. Which is by way of announcing the fact that the greatest of all gloom chasers is coming. The great W. I. Swain Show Company is coming during the K. P. fair and when W. I. Swain comes around Old Man Gloom makes himself very scarce. With everything bright, new, speak and span the Swain aggregation is coming to Stanford for a whole week, beginning Aug. 16 and young and old are glad. Under big water proof tents, seats enough for a whole town, amusement lovers of this town will see some of the classic dramatic and comedy productions ever produced here. There will be society drama, western plays and productions with strong human interests, comedy that will make tears of laughter roll down your cheeks, musical selections that will make you wonder how Swain can possibly do it all for those popular prices that he charges. W. I. Swain is adding new laurels to those won in the past by his old-doing himself this season. His $10,000 repertoire of Metropolitan hits, including the deeply human interest play, "Belle of the Mountain Trail," Monday night, challenges the instant admiration of everyone. The Swain band, one of the best in the country, will play music during the fair here and it is said to be a topnotcher.

Thousand Cattle Here Court Day.

About a thousand cattle were on the market at Stanford court day sales Monday, and buyers and sellers were busy at Nunneley's stock yards all day long. There were really more bees than buyers, and several had to take their herds home unladen. Most of the best stuff changed hands, however, and as a rule prices were good, some growthy calves selling as high by the head. W. B. Burton, of Lancaster, bought about half a dozen head or sores at from $110 to $140, but the horse and mule trade was rather light. A big crowd was in town and business generally was brisk.

Happy Family Reunion.

The home of Mrs. Charlotte Warren, on Danville avenue, has been the happy scene of a happy family reunion during the past week. All of the children were home and the occasion was a delightful one. Following are the children: Mrs. R. A. Asbury, of Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. J. C. Osborne, of Knoxville; Misses Jennie, Charlotte and Margaret Warren, Mr. Ashby Warren, of this city.

HARRIS CREEK.

Miss Allie M. Owens will leave Sunday for McLean, Ill., where she will visit relatives and friends.
Mrs. W. S. Benedict and Mrs. Jack Benedict spent from Saturday night Monday with Mrs. T. J. Benedict in Casey.

A Mr. Gordon from Sand Knob conducts a singing school here each Saturday night and Sunday morning. All are invited to attend.

Little Ernestine Wenz has returned to her home in Louisville after a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Konrad. Her aunt, Elizabeth Konrad, accompanied her home.

The people of this community were both shocked and grieved to hear of the death of Mr. Bud Benedict, who lived at White Oak, near Junction City. He is survived by a wife and eight children, who mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father. Interment was made here in the old family burying ground Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

More Horses Coming To Fair.

"Save me fifteen box stalls; will be at your fair and expect to ship Saturday," phoned a Nashville horseman to Secretary E. C. Walton Saturday night. The secretary could not catch the gentleman's name, but the stalls have been reserved. "Smiling Bob" Walker, of Richmond, will also be here with his string. He won everything he went after at Berea.

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.

"Despondency Due to Indigestion." "About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Maceon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.

May Be "Churched."

The "wet" and "dry" fight held recently in Boyd county at which the "wets" won decisively, is still causing some stir in Clettsburg and a number of prominent officials in the Presbyterian church there are said to have received letters from the pastor, Rev. R. L. Kianard, stating that as a result of the part they took in the local option fight he would at an early date prefer charges with the church session and would expect them to make full apology to the church for their actions and promise to refrain from similar actions in the future, saying that this must be done by Sunday, August 8, and if they failed to do so there would be grounds for putting them out of the church. It is understood they will not comply with the request, but allow the matter to go before the church. Following the "wet" and "dry" election a number of names of prominent members of the Baptist church at Clettsburg have been taken from the roll and the Rev. Mr. Gatlin has resigned, but his resignation has not been accepted.

Oddest Hotel To Be Closed.

Warning that the oddest hotel in New York will be closed on August 28, when more than fifty working girls are to be sent ashore from the ship Jacob A. Stabler, caused much unhappiness among the occupants of the floating hotel. A notice posted on the bulletin board on the Stabler's deck read that Arbuckle's Deep Sea Hotel Company has decided to retire from the hotel business and serve no meals after August 28. For years the Stabler has been a home for girls employed in shops and stores at a cost to them varying from $2.50 to $3.50 a week. Many of them earned $4 a week, and fourteen of the girls are now unemployed. The city fire department had ordered changes to be made in the Stabler and it was said that the company did not wish to go to the expense of making them. The old ship built in 1867 was purchased by John Arbuckle in 1901, and for several years has been moored at a pier in the East river as a home for girls.

The Mt. Vernon Fair.

The Signal says that the Mt. Vernon fair was a success from every standpoint except from a financial one. The show of stock was the best in the history of the association, the weather conditions were perfect, but the crowd was not what it should have been. The paper thinks that the people were too deeply interested in the primary to think about the fair. Jas. Maret, father of "Boone Way," made an excellent secretary and was given a vote of thanks for his services.

Vannover—Guinn.

News comes from the southern part of the county that C. S. Guinn, a well known farmer and Miss Vannover, eloped to Tennessee a few days ago where they were married. The groom is a member of the real estate firm of Guinn & Thompson and one of the liveliest wires in that section of the county. The bride is the attractive daughter of Henry Vannover, and quite pretty and popular. Their many friends will extend heartiest congratulations.

Favor Municipal Plant.

At a called meeting of the Lancaster Council it was clearly proven that they favor municipal ownership of the electric light plant, for they have asked for estimates on the plant. Representatives were there from different cities in interest of their electrical houses and agreed to furnish estimates as to the probable cost of the entire new A. C. system. It is thought that the most up-to-date one can be installed there for about $15,000.

Adair Enlists Against Illiteracy.

Attorney General James Garnett enlisted eighty-two volunteers for moonlight school work in an address at Columbia, urging such schools in every district in Adair county. As there are only eighty districts, the result was especially notable. The teachers' institute being in session, all the teachers and many trustees, as well as citizens, were present to hear Mr. Garnett, who was introduced by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart.

Minister Said To Be Moonshiner.

During a moonshine raid through the Pound and Guests river sections of Letcher county, headed by Deputy Collector C. F. Beverly, two moonshiners, one a Baptist minister, named Mullins, were arrested and are being held for preliminary hearing. Two big stills with complete paraphernalia were cut and destroyed.

Good Road To Brodhead Fair.

E. L. King, of the East End, told us yesterday that he had worked the road from Crab Orchard to the Rockcastle line and that it was in good condition. His brother, H. N. King, has done by the Rockcastle line to Brodhead, which gives a first-class road to the Brodhead fair, which begins tomorrow.

Miss Sallie M. Craig Chosen Teacher.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Stanford Graded School held Friday night, Miss Sallie M. Craig the accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Craig, was chosen as teacher of the sixth grade to succeed Miss Christine Merritt, of Danville. Miss Merritt has accepted a place in the Graded School at Danville.

Campbell House Being Enlarged.

So greatly has the patronage of the Campbell House, near the depot, increased that enlarging it had become necessary. A. T. Nunneley, who owns the property, had a force of carpenters begin work Saturday, adding another story, which will give a half dozen or so more rooms.

For A Sprained Ankle.

If you will get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and observe the directions given therewith faithfully, you will recover in much less time than is usually required. Obtainable everywhere.

LINCOLN ONE OF FEW TO ESCAPE LANDSLIDE

McChesney Carries This County After Hard Fight—Fine Majority Given Col. Walton.

One of the few counties which did not get into the general landslide for Stanley which seemed to be the style all over the state, was old Lincoln. After one of the very hardest political battles ever seen in this section, Lincoln gave a majority of 122 for McChesney Saturday and the McChesney men say that they were glad to get that much. They had expected to go to 300 majority some weeks before the primary, but withdrawal of Bosworth put nearly all of his active working politicians behind Stanley and the union of forces held the McChesney vote down. Both the Stanley and McChesney workers seemed well supplied with money but the Stanley workers far outnumbered their dry rivals and held their majority way down.

Election day passed off quietly in Lincoln with no disturbances of any kind or consequence.

Much surprise was occasioned by the smallness of the majority given Judge John Sam Owsley, Lincoln's candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney. Estimates made by his friends conceded about 300 votes to Puryear in this county but it was believed that Judge Owsley would poll some 1,500 votes, enabling him to go to the other three counties with the big majority from his home. His vote failed to materialize however, many who voted in the governor's race, failing to vote for him or in his race, at all, thus greatly reducing his majority, and really putting him out of the running, although the fact that Puryear received the advantage of a large amount of money spent for other candidates by Boyle, Garrard and Mercer gave him overwhelming majorities in those counties.

A source of gratification to his many friends "back home" was the large vote given Col. W. P. Walton here in Lincoln, notwithstanding the fact that one of the other candidates had placed a clerkship in his office in this county. Although he was on the Stanley "slate" and Stanley lost this county, R. L. "Bob" Greene defeated Tom Rhea for Auditor in Lincoln. In a large measure this is ascribed to the fact that two Lincoln men are slated for places in Greene's office if he wins. Joe R. Embury, of Stanford, and A. Adams, of Crab Orchard, who now has a clerkship under Greene.

Rodman Keenon, of Mercer, who appears to have won his race for Clerk of the Court of Appeals over Steger, the Stanley slate man, received a very handsome majority in Lincoln, one of the largest given.

Soudan Grass.

J. T. Livingston brought in and left at this office Monday a bunch of his Soudan grass, of which he has about three-quarters of an acre. It measures eight and a half feet and the forty-five stalks he brought in came from a single seed. It is splendid for cattle and horses also thrive on it and there is no grass much better for the silo. Mr. Livingston will save for seed his entire crop this year and will put it on the market. Soudan grass is said to stand dry weather better than any kind and can be grown successfully on comparatively poor land. Mr. Livingston's crop is on the Goodnight farm which he has rented.

Mrs. Zada Zanone Stamford Dead.

News came Saturday that Mrs. Zada Zanone Stamford had died suddenly in Indianapolis, where she went to reside shortly after her marriage. She had been in bad health for some time, but her friends were not aware that her condition was so serious. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Zanone, of Lancaster, and a cousin of Mesdames L. H. and W. T. Stone, of this city. Her mother was a daughter of the late Alex. Thayer. The burial occurred at Lancaster Monday. Mrs. W. T. Stone and Miss Annie Holtzclaw went over Saturday to be with the bereaved family.

Brodhead Fair This Week.

The Brodhead fair begins tomorrow and continues over Friday. Great preparations have been made to entertain the throngs that will be on hands each day and horses from many sections of the State are already there. Brodhead always has a big fair, but the one which begins tomorrow promises to be the best ever. Go and tell your friends to do likewise.

Two Wills Probated.

The wills of W. T. Manuel and Mrs. Amanda Harris were probated in the county court yesterday. The former leaves to his wife all of his property, real and personal, and at her death it is to go to their children. Mrs. Harris left her property to her nephew, A. T. Nunneley, and makes him the executor of her estate. This was the extent of the business done in court.

Visited Hundred and Twelve Counties

"In my travels in the interest of the Louisville Law School, I visited 112 counties and was confident that McChesney would win the nomination for governor," said George D. Hopper, who came home to vote. "His defeat was as great a surprise as it was a disappointment to me," he continued.

Train Killed Horse.

The morning C. C. train Saturday ran over and killed a good horse belonging to a gypsy gang which was camping on Logan's Creek.

Recommends Chamberlain's Colic

Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy "I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jones, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparation of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere.
